

Superior Court of California
County of Mendocino

COURT REPORTING SERVICES

Effective January 1, 2012, the services of Official Court Reporters will be required only in felony criminal proceedings, juvenile proceedings, and other court proceedings when ordered by the court or when requested by a party in accordance with Rule 20.2 of the Local Rules for the Mendocino County Superior Court. [Chapter 20, Local Rules and Rule 2.956, California Rules of Court]

Official Court Reporters will not be automatically provided for civil, family law or probate case matters. Each party who wants an Official Court Reporter present in any civil, family or probate case proceeding must file a written statement before the hearing date indicating that the presence of an Official Court Reporter is requested. [Rule 20.2, Local Rules for the Mendocino County Superior Court] Upon receipt of a written request for a court reporter in any civil, family or probate matter, an Official Court Reporter will be scheduled, subject to availability. [Rule 2.956(b)(3), Cal. Rules of Court] Proceedings of less than one hour in duration will be reported without cost to any party. [Rule 20.3, Local Rules for Mendocino Superior Court.]

If a party requests the presence of an official court reporter and it appears that none will be available, the Court Clerk will notify the party of that fact as soon as possible before the proceeding. [Rule 2.956(b)(3), Cal. Rules of Court]. If an Official Court Reporter is not available to cover a civil, family law or probate proceeding for which a court reporter was requested, then the requesting party in such civil, family law or probate court matters may provide and is required to pay for the certified court reporter approved by the court to serve as the official pro tempore reporter. [Rule 2.956(c), Cal. Rules of Court; Rules 20.2 and 20.3, Local Rules for the Mendocino County Superior Court]
